

My father Daniel was cooking chicken curry as it is my mums favourite meal.

1. Add a missing apostrophe. Explain its use.
2. Add a pair of brackets. Explain why you used them.
3. Identify the subordinate clause.
4. Re-write the sentence with the subordinate clause as an opener.
5. Identify part of the sentence in the past progressive tense.
6. Which word could you change so the sentence is in the present tense?

My father Daniel was cooking chicken curry as it is my mum's favourite meal.

1. mum's favourite meal → apostrophe to show possession
2. (Daniel) → extra information about father
3. as it is my mum's favourite meal
4. As it is my mum's favourite meal, my father (Daniel) was cooking chicken curry.
5. was cooking
6. was → is